The public will judge the contest. The top three entries in the adult and children's contests will be donated to national wildlife refuges by ODCCA to be used as a teaching tool, and the artist(s) will be acknowledged. Winning entries will be awarded ribbons and the artist will receive a certificate stating where the winning carving was donated. If there are more than three entries per group, the artist may contact a refuge or organization of his/her choice to donate the carving.
